James S. Rollinson, Jr. is the Director of Client Representation Services with DHL&S. In this role, he provides tax planning and compliance services to a wide range of businesses and individuals. He also represents businesses and individuals in IRS and State audits. With more than nineteen years of experience, Jim has significant knowledge of federal and state tax rules and regulations. He specializes in several industries and specialty areas, including medical practices, manufacturers, employee benefit plans, not-for-profit organizations, and areas of international tax.

Jim is involved in HLB International, a worldwide organization of independent accounting and advisory firms of which DHL&S is a member. He actively participates in several not-for-profit organizations and professional associations, serving on the Board of Managers for the Bridgeport YMCA and the Finance and Audit Committees for the Connecticut Central Coast YMCA. In addition, he is a member of the CBN4 Hamden Chamber of Commerce Network Group, and the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Jim is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Western Connecticut State University in Danbury, Connecticut and a Master of Science degree in taxation from the University of New Haven in New Haven, Connecticut.
