Jennifer S. Bull is an Accounting and Audit Principal with DHL&S. In this role, she is responsible for planning and managing assurance and advisory engagements for clients in a broad range of areas. With more than 20 years of experience, Jennifer specializes in serving manufacturing businesses and companies in the financial services industry, including mortgage service firms and registered investment advisors. She also has significant experience serving charter schools, retail businesses and not-for-profit organizations, including college foundations. Along with her accounting and auditing specialty, Jennifer has significant experience in individual and business taxation, planning and consultation.

Jennifer participates in several not-for-profit organizations, serving in various positions on their Boards of Directors, including as Treasurer of the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce, Chairwoman and a member of the Finance Committee of the Valley United Way, and the Connecticut Chapter of the American Red Cross.

As part of her annual continuing professional education, Jennifer regularly attends accounting and auditing updates sponsored by the State Board of Accountancy. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants. Jennifer earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and graduated Cum Laude from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Connecticut.
