Peter Tomaino is a Tax Principal with DHL&S. In this role, he provides tax advisory services to a wide range of companies and individuals, including family-owned businesses, local and multistate corporations and partnerships, high-net-worth individuals, estates, trusts, not-for-profit organizations, and public companies. With more than 20 years of experience, he has expertise in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, real estate and public utilities. He also has experience serving professional service firms, including dental and medical practices ranging from sole practitioners to large group practices. Pete advises clients regarding tax minimization strategies by utilizing tax credits and cost segregation studies for real property acquisitions.

Pete frequently gives presentations and participates in seminars on a variety of tax issues. To keep abreast of the ever-changing tax and legislation updates, he attends tax symposiums sponsored by the State Board of Accountancy. Pete is a graduate of the Leadership Greater Valley Program, sponsored by the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce, and Leadership Danbury, sponsored by the Danbury Chamber of Commerce. He serves as the Assistant Treasurer for the Housatonic Council Boy Scouts of America.

Pete is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants. He earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from Western Connecticut State University in Danbury, Connecticut and a Master of Science degree in taxation from the University of New Haven in New Haven, Connecticut.
