William C. Lesko is a Principal with DHL&S. In this role, he is responsible for providing audit and accounting services to publicly and privately-held midsize businesses. With more than 25 years of experience, he specializes in a variety of industries, including health care, public utilities, manufacturing, and construction. Bill's wide range of industry experience, including in financial services, serves as the basis for his expertise in regulatory, rate making, and reporting requirements.

Bill frequently presents and has been a featured speaker at several New England Chapter of the National Association of Water Companies industry conferences. He is the author of a seminar on understanding and utilizing financial statements, and he is an instructor in local and national continuing education programs. An active member of several not-for-profit organizations, Bill serves on the Board of Directors and is the Treasurer of the Connecticut Food Bank. Formerly he served on the Board of Directors of the Valley United Way and was appointed to the Citizen's Financial Review Board by the Stratford Town Council.

Bill is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and finance from the University of Connecticut in Storrs, CT.
